DELIVERIES AT THE COVES
UPDATE ON COMMUNICATION CIRCULATED 25-03-2020

RE: Coronavirus (COVID-19) Lockdown Period as declared by the South African Government; 26 March 2020 – 16 April 2020

Dear Covers,

Please note the following changes regarding deliveries to The Coves:

1. Deliveries of essential goods (as stipulated in the Lockdown Regulations) will be allowed.
 - a. The delivery vehicles will be allowed to enter the estate, and residents need to grant access via the access system.
 - b. When needed, and especially for medical deliveries; Security will escort the delivery vehicle to the property concerned.
 - c. All delivery vehicles need to have the necessary documents/permission letters as per the Regulations; otherwise, access will be denied.
2. Residents are not allowed to leave items with the Security personnel at the Main Gate for someone else to collect. Security will not accept any parcels.
3. A reminder that only emergency contractors will be allowed, as defined in the Regulations. Please contact Management to obtain permission before arranging with the contractor.
 - a. Contractors entering the Estate need to have the necessary documents required to perform “essential services” work during the National Lockdown period.

We will keep you updated with any changes.

Stay Safe!
